INTRODUCTION

Social equality is a state of affairs in which all people within a specific society or isolated group have the same status in certain respects

However, it also includes concepts of health equality, economic equality and other social securities. It also includes equal opportunities and obligations, and so involves the whole of society. Social equality requires the absence of legally.

HEALTH EQUALITY AND EDUCATION EQUALITY

- Health Equity: Attainment of the highest level of health for all people. Health Equity means efforts to ensure that all people have full and equal access to opportunities that enable them to lead healthy lives.
- Educational equity: also referred to as equity in education, is a measure of achievement, fairness, and opportunity in education.

ECONOMIC EQUALITY

- Economic equality: is the concept or idea of fairness in economics, particularly in regard to taxation or welfare economics
- Did you know in Canada

Single mothers have a median net worth of about $17,000, while single dads have about $80,000 (net worth is the total value of possessions such as a car, furniture, real estate, savings, stocks, RRSPs, etc.).

- In 2008, women working full-time for the full year earned 71% of what men earned, on average (university-educated women only earned 68% of what their male counterparts did that year).

EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY

- WHAT IS IT?

Absence of discrimination, as in the workplace, based on race, color, age, gender, national origin, religion, or mental or physical disability.

1. Equal job offers
2. Equal pay
3. Equal promotion

which can be imposed by a set of rulers.

HOW MONOPOLY FOLLOWS THE RULES OF EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY?

- ALL PLAYERS GET EQUAL START.
- THE CHANCE OF THE DICE.
- THE CHOICES MADE.

APARTHEID

- What is it?

Apartheid is a word from the Afrikaans language that means “staying apart.”

- WHAT WERE THE EFFECTS OF APARTHEID?

Black people were not permitted to live in areas reserved for whites. They were not even allowed to sit on the same benches.

- How people can be treated equally?

Many societies have passed laws that prohibit discrimination against people based on race, gender, and age.

CONCLUSION

Promoting social equality is still a challenge that each nation still has to overcome. It is quite common to see inequality through race, ethnicity, gender, and social status. We are still segregated by social class, gender, and through political association. Greed, and power also contribute greatly toward social inequality. The more exposed we are to different cultures, the more accepting we become. Once we accept the ideas of other cultures, we will be able to be more accepting of others, thus eliminating social inequality.
